

Serving children & families since 1963

We Provide:

- Free confidential counseling by caring professionals
- Assistance with housing and other community resources
- Medical referrals and assistance in obtaining quality medical care
- Individualized parenting plans
- Long-term emotional support
- Your choice of loving, Christian adoptive families if you choose adoption for your child

We Also Provide:

- Transportation to and from doctor visits
- Maternity clothes
- Assistance in obtaining medical insurance or Medicaid
- Parenting education and support
- Help in obtaining continued education (i.e. GED)
- Free legal assistance in adoption cases
- Some financial support for medical bills in adoption cases

Why Call Christian Services:

You will receive free confidential counseling

All of our adoptive families are Christians.

You choose the adoptive family for your child. You can meet the adoptive family and/or talk to them on the telephone.

Contact with your Colorado Christian Services counselor does not stop after you place your baby for adoption. You will continue to receive counseling for as long as it benefits you.

Contact with your Colorado Christian Services caseworker does not stop if you choose to parent your baby. We're here to help you. We care about you and your future, whatever choice you make.

It helps to have someone to talk to about the stress of an unplanned pregnancy and the demands of making decisions for the future. We are here for you. No matter what your situation, we can help. Call 1-800-988-0600 for immediate confidential counseling at no cost to you. It's never too soon or too late to call.